

FREE Community Fly Tying Program at the Jesse Smith Library

The Jesse Smith Library and the Rhode Island Department of Environmental Management, Division of Fish and Wildlife, are hosting this FREE program.

The course is suitable for both novice and experienced fly tiers. Participants will learn to make their own fresh water flies, then have the opportunity to fish using the flies they created at a private fly fishing event in Rhode Island.

Fly Tying Classes — 3 Sessions

Mondays from 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.

May 8, 15, and 22

You may attend one or all sessions. We will make a different fly each class.

Fishing Event

Sunday, July 9, 2017

No experience is necessary, and no fishing license is required to participate in the fishing event. Equipment will be provided or you may bring your own.

This program is for people ages 10 and older.

Register now for this FREE Program

You must register with DEM in advance for planning purposes.

No walk-ins, please!

Call or email Scott Travers

(401) 539-0019 scott.travers@dem.ri.gov

